

But God

Sometimes you may not understand
Why things do not go as you may have plan
Sometimes you may not comprehend
When it seem like your world is in a great whirlwind

But God!
The Almighty One steps in
He is the only one you can lean on and depend
He will turn your plans around
To fit the purpose He has for you
Even though it may seem
You really do not have a clue

At times the storms are raging high
Oh no this cannot be
I need someone to rescue me
It is coming from the left and right
I just cannot lose sight

But God!
Yes, He is the Almighty Guide
He is the one that will help you through
The Lord will provide and direct what to do
When you seek Him to hear
I know He will speak very clear
The Lord is the one that will work it out
I believe this can be said without a doubt

But God!
He is that true Staff and Rod
